- 2.1.1 Team Managers or their representatives must submit the final confirmation of entries of each event to the Technical Information Centre (TIC) by 1400 hours on the day before the event.
 - 2.1.2 The final confirmation of members of the relay teams and their order will be accepted at the TIC no later than one hour before the start of the event.

2.2 Entry to Call Room

Athletes' control will be carried out in the call room. Team officials will not be permitted to enter the call room.

2.3 Athletes Reporting Times

2.3.1 Athletes must report to call room no later than the following time period prior to the scheduled start time of their events:

Track Events:	50 minutes
Field Events, except Pole Vault:	60 minutes
Pole Vault:	90 minutes

2.3.2 The call room officials will check the athletes' accreditation cards, uniform and shoes. In accordance with the IAAF Rule 142, athletes who do not report on time to call room without a valid reason (eg. without a medical certificate) will be excluded from the event in question and from any other event for which they have entered.

2.4 Entering the Competition Area

Athletes will be conducted to the competition area by the call room judges. The following time period will be allocated for the final warm-up before competition:

Track Events, except hurdles and relays:	10 minutes
Hurdles and relays:	15 minutes
High Jump:	40 minutes
Pole Vault:	60 minutes
Other events:	30 minutes

2.5 Starter's Commands

The Starter's Commands will be in English. For events up to and including 400m, the commands will be: "on your marks", "set" and when all the competitors are "set", the starting pistol will be fired. For track events longer than 400m, the commands will be "on your marks" and after all runners keep stable, the starting pistol will be fired.

2.6 Post-Event Control

Baskets, containing athletes' personal belongings, will be delivered to the athlete at post event control. Athlete's accreditation cards will be returned to them at this point. Athletes who have placed first, second and third will be accompanied to the Victory Ceremony.

2.7 Leaving the Competition Area

Athletes will be conducted from the competition area through the mixed zone to post-event control. Athletes, competing in field events, who have reached the qualifying standard in the qualifying round, may leave the competition area accompanied by the judge. Athletes, who do not qualify for the top 8 spots, after 3 attempts, may leave the competition area accompanied by the judge. In the final of high jump and pole vault, athletes, who have been eliminated, may leave the competition area immediately, provided they are accompanied by the judge. Athletes who place first, second and third will leave the competition area together at the end of the event to attend the Victory Ceremony.

2.8 Technical Information Distribution

Start lists and results will be displayed on the notice board outside the Technical Information Centre (TIC) and at the warm-up sites. Each delegation will also have a pigeon-hole (mail slot) where they will receive copies of start lists, results and other information about the athletics competition. These pigeon-holes will be located at the TIC in the stadium.

2.9 Competitor Numbers

Each athlete will be supplied with total of 4 number bibs. Numbers shall be displayed in the following manner: 2 on the uniform, 1 on the track suit, and 1 on the bag. In competition, all competitors must display the bib numbers on their chest and back, except in high jump and pole vault events, where a single number must be worn on either the chest or the back. All athletes must fix one number on their track suit and another one on the bag that will be taken with them into the stadium. Athletes taking part in pole vault events must display one number on the covers of their poles. The athletes in track events will be given two adhesive bib numbers before entering the track, which must be fixed to both sides of their shorts or legs. In accordance with IAAF Rules, the numbers must not be cut, folded or obscured in any way. Athletes who violate the rule will be excluded from the event.

2.10 Team attire and shoes

All participants must wear the official uniform permitted for the competition by their delegation. In order to avoid any problem, each team must present their team's complete set of uniforms to the TIC to be photographed. Only the officially photographed uniforms will be approved for use in the competition. The same rule applies to the uniform worn in the award ceremony. Furthermore, athletes may not use a brand of shoes other than those shoes previously declared on the final entry forms. Athletes will be approved to wear clothing with manufactures' identification that is in accordance with the IAAF Rules.

2.11 Track Events

The rounds of competition will be arranged in accordance with IAAF Rules 166 according to the number of participants. Team Mangers will be informed of the programme of all track events no later than 12 hours prior to the start time of each event.

2.12 Field Events

If the number of athletes who have reached the qualifying standard is less than 12, athletes who have not reached the qualifying standards will be added to bring the number to twelve 12. And if it is over 12, all athletes who have reached the qualifying standards will be allowed to enter into the final.
